Author Journey Check-In Worksheet

Discussed in Episode 13

A simple reflection worksheet to help you stop looking only at the road ahead and recognize how far you have already come. Because progress is much easier to see when you occasionally turn around.

Remember where you were when you started

Skills you have learned along the way

Decisions you can now make with confidence

Accomplishments you may have rushed past

Your next small step forward